Start your holiday season by joining us for this wonderful St. Louis tradition. The event begins with "sugar plum" treats, followed by holiday crafts for all children. Then watch as the talented dancers of Alexandra Ballet present an entertaining, narrated version of The Nutcracker, just right for young audiences.

Everyone in the family will enjoy the excitement of this live performance, with scenes including the battle between the Mouse King and the brave Nutcracker, the sweet and beautiful Sugar Plum Fairy, and all the dances from The Land of the Sweets. Don't miss this perfect opportunity to introduce your child to the magical world of ballet.

Registration is required at the Famous-Barr court before each performance.

This performance is offered to the public free of charge as part of Alexandra Ballet's mission to educate, elevate, and enrich the lives of those in our community through the art of dance.
